

For the Krishna Temple in Zurich we are looking for

Co-President Department Internal approx. 60-100%

as a member of the temple management

Tasks

- Shared responsibility for the operations in the Krishna Temple Zurich as a member of the temple management
- Management of the internal department with the areas of kitchen, altar and the temple commander
- Leadership for the department heads as mentioned above
- Responsibility for all internal temple activities, in close collaboration with the division managers
- Together with the support of the other two Co-presidents and the counselors to care for the temple residents on all levels (physical, mental, emotional, social, intellectual, and spiritual)
- You are the brahminical and spiritual director of the temple; you direct, instruct, correct, encourage and inspire temple residents, congregational members, and guests

Profile:

- Identification with the mission statement and goals of ISKCON and the Krishna Community Switzerland (you chant 16 rounds of the maha-mantra daily and follow the four regulative principles)
- You have a strong personal sadhana (spiritual practice)
- You have received the brahminical initiation from a guru in ISKCON
- You belong to a certain ashram and follow the standard lifestyle and etiquette of this ashram
- You represent ISKCON in every aspect (behavior, dress code, etc.) both in your private as well as your public life, both inside and outside the temple
- Humble and non-envious
- Self-motivated, determined, and patient
- Respect for superiors, colleagues, and subordinates as well as for everyone else
- You stay balanced even under pressure, you are flexible and able to work in teams
- You have experience in personnel management and a participative, cooperative, and team-oriented leadership attitude
- Good knowledge of human nature and empathy towards others
- Communicate respectfully, clearly, completely, quickly, and according to the situation
- High degree of self-reliance
- You have excellent skills in written and spoken German and/or English
- If you are not Swiss or do not live in Switzerland, you should ideally be an EU citizen (to get a residence permit for Switzerland) and know the culture and mentality of Swiss citizens/devotees

Further information:

- Versatile area of responsibility
- Financial support and accommodation by agreement
- Independent way of working with a lot of creative freedom and flexible working hours
- Motivated team
- Mutual cooperation in Krishna's service
- Clear goals and future-oriented projects
- Dedicated board of directors

- Work location in the Krishna Tempel at Bergstrasse 54 in Zurich or home office
- Ideally, you live in or near the temple

Would you like to engage your many years of experience in Krishna's service and do you feel addressed? Then we look forward to receiving your complete application documents with a letter of motivation to our president of the Krishna Association Switzerland, Divya-simha Dasa, divyasimha.sns@pamho.net.

Hare Krishna and thank you very much!

Internationale Gesellschaft für Krishna-Bewusstsein
Gründer-Acharya His Divine Grace A.C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupada